

NOVEMBER MEETING

The November meeting was one of the best attended of the year. Displays were plentiful and attendees were able to see some of the best birdstones in Midwestern and Ohio collections. The talk on birdstones by Bob Converse was to a packed room.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Our Keynote Speaker will be Dr. Timothy Pauketat presenting his latest research on the Mississippian metropolis, Cahokia, in a paper entitled, America's Lost City and Its Religion: Cahokia and Its Connection to Ohio.

The other speakers slated for the symposium are:

George H. Colvin – Fossil Shark Teeth from Ohio Archaeological Sites.

Stanley Baker – Prehistoric Contact on the Monongahela.

Jeffrey Wilson – LIDAR research at Serpent mound.

Dr. Mike Gramly – Additional Evidence and Speculations Pertaining to the Cumberland Palaeo-American Tradition.

Robert Converse – The Adena Culture.

Dr. Darrin Lowery – A Geologic Understanding of Prehistoric Culture Landscapes: A Middle Atlantic Case Study.

Dr. Christopher Ellis – Investigations at the Davidson Site (AhHk-54): A Late Archaic Settlement on the Ausable River, Southwestern Ontario.

John C. Rummel – Engraved Human Bones from Midwestern Hopewell Sites.

Additional details will be forthcoming in the Ohio Archaeologist and at our website: www.OhioArch.org.

All paid attendees will receive a complimentary copy of the book Two Essays: Chief and Greed by world-renowned Archaeologist and Philanthropist, Dr.

Edmund Carpenter. This book discusses the establishment of the George Gustav Heye Foundation that later became the National Museum of the American Indian, and documents the deceptions used to gain the largest collection of American Indian Art in the United States. This is a must-read for anyone interested in Archaeology.
